

Seniors Experience Southern Hospitality at the April's Finest

NORTH CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA - The April's Finest Senior Classic is set to get underway on Friday, April 15. The preliminary game schedule will be posted on the ISSA Website. This popular senior tournament is one of the sport's oldest on-going senior events. North Charleston provides an excellent base for the visitors who enjoy taking in the charm and southern hospitality available through out the Low Country. Festivities will get underway at the player appreciation dinner on Thursday night. Cindy Dambaugh and Joe Lysauht have planned a special senior tournament experience for 2011.
